La Fincuoghi di Bedonia

BEDONIA Il vertice si terrà il 18 Fincuoghi, è tempo di cassa integrazione aspettando la Regione

La lunga trattativa che riguarda la Fincuoghi di Bedonia e il destino dei suoi lavoratori prosegue, pur con le oggettive difficoltà. L'obiettivo finale dell'azienda è quello di cedere il sito a un gruppo di privati, mentre sta procedendo a trasferire gradualmente la produzione allo stabilimento di Borgotaro. Il prossimo appuntamento istituzionale è in programma lunedì 18 nella sede della Regione Emilia-Romagna, dove è in programma un incontro con i vertici aziendali per fare il punto della situazione. Nel frattempo, però, 90 dipendenti - un terzo dell'intera forza lavoro presente nei due stabilimenti - sono stati posti in cassa integrazione per sei settimane. I creditori stanno studiando il piano di rientro che è stato preparato dalla Fincuoghi, mentre non tutte le speranze sono perse per quanto riguarda la salvezza dell'azienda. La scorsa estate era stata avanzata l'ipotesi Soprip, ora si attendono esiti positivi dall'incontro con la Regione. Con il fiato sospeso sono 270 dipendenti e le loro famiglie, oltre all'economia generale del territorio montano, che perderebbe uno dei suoi capitalisti storici.
